

Wayfinder Family Services SPECIAL EDUCATION SCHOOL

A Unique Setting
Encouraging
Maximum Growth

Wayfinder's special education school is a California state-certified non-public school that provides children and youth, ages 5-21, who have moderate-to-severe disabilities, with a safe and nurturing environment for learning and growth. Through individualized educational programming, our students learn life skills to develop a positive self-image and increase independence.

AT A GLANCE

- Individualized instruction in communication, functional academics, self-help, socialization and prevocational skills
- Compassionate teachers credentialed to work with children who have severe disabilities
- 1:2 staff-to-student ratio
- On-site nursing
- Outdoor recreation, including our sensory playground and swimming pool
- Fully equipped training apartment for development of independent living skills
- Instructional outings in the community to promote socialization skills
- Opportunities to attend Wayfinder's Camp Bloomfield in Malibu, California
- Specialized services for students whose disabilities include visual impairment, such as orientation and mobility training, assistive technology instruction and lessons in pre-Braille

REFERRAL PROCEDURE

A family member, healthcare or blindness professional, legal counsel, the Department of Children and Family Services, Regional Center or school district may refer a student to Wayfinder's special education school.

has a new name!

We're so proud of Junior Blind's long history of serving children, youth and adults who are visually impaired and those with developmental disabilities. It's an exciting time in our history as we extend our hands to help children and families facing different challenges. Wayfinder Family Services embraces everyone we serve.
