WAYFINDER IMPACT EACH YEAR

Vision Loss and Multiple Disabilities

For children and adults who are blind, visually impaired or multi-disabled, Wayfinder offers services that reach all ages, from early intervention for infants, through educational and recreation programs for children, to residential programming and workforce development for teens and adults.

91% of children with disabilities in our early-intervention programs met their individual developmental goals.

82% of students in our Special Education School met their individual goals.

87% of residents with disabilities in our Group Homes achieved two or more of their four individual goals for the year.

98% of teens and young adults with vision impairment in Transition Services increased their training, gained employment or enrolled in higher education.

Wayfinder's residential, rehabilitation and workforce development programs last year served adults with vision loss from 16 California counties.

Residential Services, Foster Care and Adoption

From the day they enter the child welfare system to their adoption into a forever home, Wayfinder offers children a safe place and comprehensive care. Wayfinder draws on its decades of experience assisting children with disabilities to increase the focus on foster children with health and mental health conditions.

1,665 children removed from their homes received care at our Cottage transitional shelter program.

95% of foster children with medical or mental health conditions in our Short Term Residential Therapeutic Program improved their educational performance or school attendance.

465 children received assistance from our foster care and adoption services.

Medical and Mental Health Services

Wayfinder provides essential medical services 24 hours per day, seven days per week, to foster children and children with disabilities. To build coping skills and resiliency, we offer a wide range of emotional and behavioral counseling services to children, adults and families.

Our comprehensive medical team includes a psychiatrist, endocrinologist, 17 nurses, behavioral psychologist, and 14 mental health therapists.

Wayfinder's nursing staff administered 120,815 doses of medication last year.

275 people received mental health therapy from Wayfinder.
