Formerly known as Junior Blind, Wayfinder Family Services is the place to turn for people facing the greatest challenges. We provide expert, individualized support and services to children, youth, adults and families. Wayfinder strives to empower individuals, support families and strengthen communities through overlapping areas of service: vision loss and multiple disabilities, residential care, foster care and adoption and medical and mental health services. At the heart of these services is the belief that everyone deserves a chance to thrive, a safe haven and a loving family.

THE EVENT: SATURDAY, DECEMBER 14, 2019 / 1-4 p.m.

*Deadlines for inclusion in printed materials: Invitation – September 1st; Branded items – November 1st
