

ABOUT TAC

Training for Adoption Competency (TAC) is an accredited post-Master's curriculum designed by C.A.S.E. with the assistance of a National Advisory Board of adoption experts. C.A.S.E. received accreditation of its Training for Adoption Competency from the Institute of Credentialing Excellence (ICE) in November 2020. This makes TAC part of an elite group of certificate programs dedicated to public protection and excellence in practice.

AT A GLANCE

Wayfinder Family partners with The Center for Adoption Support and Education (C.A.S.E.) and is the only TAC-certified site in California. TAC is a comprehensive, evidence-based training designed exclusively for licensed mental health professionals, providing clinical knowledge and skills needed to effectively serve the adoption and kinship network to:

- adopted children and youth
- adults with an adoption history
- children preparing for adoption
- birth parents and extended family members
- prospective adoptive parents
- adoptive families

PROGRAM ELIGIBILITY

- Master's degree (or higher) in social work, a counseling field or other related discipline
- Current professional license or registered as an associate, applicants under clinical supervision in preparation for professional licensing will also be accepted
- Experience or genuine interest in working with adopted persons, prospective adoptive parents, birth parents and birth family members, adoptive families and kinship families in clinical settings

BENEFITS TO PARTICIPANTS

- TAC builds the clinical skills therapists need to address the issues of grief and loss, disrupted attachments, multiple moves, experienced by children with foster care/adoption/guardianship experiences, including the additional challenges of isolation, broken attachments, loss of visitation and connections created by COVID
- Specific training on trauma and brain neurobiology, treatment strategies to help children, birth and adopted parents cope with grief and loss, treatment modalities and interventions to support birth parents and extended family members and much more
- Rated by California Evidence-based Clearinghouse for Child Welfare
- Integrated 6 months of case consultation with national experts
- Graduates of TAC receive a certificate of completion and national recognition through posting on the C.A.S.E. website and directory of Adoption Competent Professionals
- Option to take accreditation exam valued at $40 to be listed as an accredited clinician.

Trainers:

Sasha McGowan, LCSW

Sasha McGowan is a Licensed Clinical Social Worker, who has worked supporting youth and families in crisis for 15 years. She specializes in adoption, foster care, youth advocacy, and training new clinicians and child welfare social workers entering the field. Sasha is a therapist serving adopted youth and their parents. She has completed Training for Adoption Competency therapy and is a Certified Nurtured Heart Approach® Trainer. Sasha is also an adoptive mom of five children, two of whom are now young adults in college.

Debbie McJimsey, LMFT

Debra has gained extensive experience in working with foster/adoptive and kinship families through her work with Lilliput and her private practice as a Licensed Marriage and Family Therapist. She has provided focused training to families and to other clinicians in the areas of parent education, trauma informed care, family and conjoint therapy models, and self-empowerment techniques such as those presented in the WISE-up program.

Arlicia Lorentty, LCSW

Arlicia Lorentty is a licensed clinical social worker currently supervising a team who support various aspects of the continuum of care with Wayfinder Family Services. She has worked with kinship families for over nine years through family finding, navigation services and resource family approval. In addition to supporting kinship families, Arlicia has previously worked with CSEC youth and in the field of medical social work. She also develops and provides training to resource families and child/family treatment professionals. When she is not working, she enjoys cooking new dishes and sharing dinner with her friends and family.

LEARNING OBJECTIVES

- Develop clinical skills in working with adopted children and youth and adoptive families on issues of loss, grief, separation, identity formation and attachment
