WAYFINDER'S EXPERTISE AND COMMITMENT

- Our staff is highly-trained, compassionate and committed. Many of our staff members have been working in the field of foster care for decades, and some are kinship caregivers, foster or adoptive parents themselves!
- We are a trauma-informed organization and nationally accredited by The Council on Accreditation.
- Wayfinder has over 65 years of experience providing services to children, youth and families. Being part of the Wayfinder Family means you have access to our expertise and comprehensive resources.
- We are committed to Inclusion, Diversity, Equity and Accessibility (IDEA) and currently hold the Human Rights Campaign Foundation All Children-All Families "You Are Welcome Here" seal of recognition

What is kinship care?

Grandparents, aunts, uncles, siblings, extended family members or close family friends who step up to raise children who have been separated from their birth parents are considered kinship caregivers. Our support and navigation systems help caregivers to strengthen their families and protect the children in their care
